OPENING PRAYER at City Council, June 24, 1980

God of all wisdom and insight,
We pause at the beginning of this City Council meeting to thank you and ask for your help.
For giving us life, we give you our grateful thanks.
For giving us gifts to enjoy this life with, we are grateful.
For giving us the desire to reach out in concern for one another, we praise you.
For giving us minds to think with, we are thankful.
For giving us these on this Council to serve us, we thank you.

We seek for them and all of us your wisdom and insight into the various considerations before us tonight.
May the discusssions and decisions be guided by a loving concern for all involved.
May we put aside selfish interests and see each problem as an opportunity to use our gifts in helping one another live lives that would please you and bring fulfillment to one another.
May we see things not only from our personal perspectives but also from your higher and broader perspective.
May we then boldly act, not just in view of the immediate need but in view of its long-range effects, not only for us personally but for all who live in this city.

We pray these things in the name of our loving and wise Savior and Lord Jesus Christ.

Amen.
